

Dr. Akhil Ranjan Garg is presently working as Vice Chancellor Bikaner Technical University, Bikaner. Formerly he worked as Professor in the Department of Electrical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering and Architecture and as Dean Faculty of arts, education, social science, science, commerce and management, MBM University, Jodhpur. Dr. Garg did his Ph.D. from IIT Delhi. He is having more than 34 years of teaching and research experience since his appointment as Assistant Professor in year 1992.

Dr. Garg has made pioneering research contributions and has solved many open problems in research areas that include Computational Neuroscience, Intelligent Systems, Pattern Recognition, Power Systems, and Machine Learning. He has published over 65 papers in these areas in refereed international journals and conference proceedings.

Dr. Garg is a recipient of numerous honours and awards including DAAD (German Academic Exchange Program) Fellowship, US Naval Academy Fellowship, IBRO (International Brain Research Organization) Fellowship. He is Member BOG IIT Jodhpur, member Syndicate Rajasthan University, member BOM RTU Kota, former member Senate JNVU, member Academic council Sardar Patel University of Police, security and criminal justice. Former Member Finance Committee and Executive Council Central University of Rajasthan.

He is actively involved in the activities of professional societies/bodies and in the past had worked as Chairman and Hon. Secretary Institution of Engineers (India) Jodhpur Local Centre. Dr. Garg is Fellow Institution of Engineers (India), Life Member Indian Society of technical Education (ISTE).